It is reported that George Warner, Esq., who for many years has been a leading lawyer at Bridgeport, Connecticut, will soon retire from the practice of his profession and remove to Milford with his family to reside. His wife was Augustina Pinchot, a sister to John E. James W. and Edgar. They will occupy the Pinchot homestead, corner of Broad and Harford streets. Such acquisitions to the town are desirable and pleasant.

We were pleased to receive a call last week from Mr. G. E. Hursh and wife, of Layton, N. J., and also to receive a sample of Rosecomb white leghorn eggs. Mr. Hursh has probably the finest stock in this section, and the eggs are a beautiful white and of large size. He states that he is unable to supply the large demand for pullets, and that broilers sell like hot cakes. He has over 1,000 hens in his yards and hatched a large number of chicks this spring.

Hon. Julio M. Foster proved him self a practical philanthropist last Wednesday by taking about thirty children to see the show at Port Jervis. Never did "Jack" Schorr have a happier load of freight than when Aunt "Fan" capped the climax of their bliss by treating to sandwiches and lemonade the sum total of contentment was reached. It was a gala day not only for the donors but also the little donees.

Prof. Maxwell Somerville has been dangerously ill at his home in Philadelphia. Some three weeks ago his face became swollen from an abscess caused by a bad tooth. The swelling was lanced, but he was seized with convulsions, which are the preliminary symptoms of lockjaw. The tooth was drawn and relief obtained but on Monday and Tuesday of last week the Professor hovered between life and death. He is still confined to his bed, but is slowly gaining strength. His many friends in Milford will be pained to hear of his serious illness and will rejoice to learn that his recovery is probable.

Ex-United States Senator William A. Wallace, of Pennsylvania, died in New York May 23. His death was due to brain trouble and came after a long illness. He had been in an unconscious condition for over two weeks. He was born in 1827, admitted to the bar in 1844, and very successfully practiced his profession until 1863 when he was nominated for the State Senate and elected. For thirteen years he was successively a member of that body. In 1871 the Democrats having obtained control of the State Senate Mr. Wallace was chosen speaker. In 1872 he was a delegate to the National Convention at Baltimore and voted against Horace Greeley, but after his nomination accorded him his support. He was elected United States senator in 1875 and immediately after taking his seat took a leading position in the councils of his party. Since returning from the Senate he practiced his profession in Clearfield and was counsel for several large coal operators and for the law officers of the county. His invalid wife and several children survive him.

Met With a Painful Accident.

A boy, son of the engineer at the mill of Hon. J. D. Houck in Greene, met with a painful accident last Friday. He had tied a piece of tarred rope to his thumb and was amusing himself by striking the end of the rope over a revolving shaft, when suddenly it caught round the shaft, pulled the boy's thumb off and with it drew out about six inches of the chord or muscle from his arm.

A Big Fire at Eddyville, Ky.

A disastrous fire recently broke out in Eddyville, Ky. penitentiary and consumed the building. Charles E. Klaier, formerly of this place, is foreman of a large gang of men in the employ of the Mason Ford Co., which occupied the first floor as a wagon material concern. His firm lost $140,000 by the fire.

When the Inn Opens.

The Inn at High Point will open to-day. The prospects are fair for a good season's business. Mr. St. John has brought north a number of the employees engaged by him in the Piney Woods Inn, in North Carolina.

Alex J. Losey, who carries the mail between Newton, N. Y. and Swartwood for which he gets $250 a year, was reported by an enemy for not making schedule time and the department fined him $300.

We nominate Messrs. J. A. Kipp and John C. Warner for executive committee of a village improvement society. They last week removed an eye sore from a lot near Centre Square. Now let the square be improved, and made a shady attractive spot with benches, and may we say it please a public drinking fountain.
